What topics will we cover?

On this course you can: research your family name and your place or country of birth; make a family tree; record stories of the past told to you by elderly relatives; recall your own childhood; collect photos and memorabilia and decorate a box or scrapbook to keep it in.

How you do it and what you include is up to you.

Amanda, the tutor, will help you plan the project and support you throughout.

There will be regular Zoom meetings where you can meet others in the group and share ideas, and receive 1-2-1 support from Amanda.

This is a course for all levels of ability. You will be able to follow spoken and written instructions and work independently on your project.

Are there any other costs? Is there anything I need to bring?
